MAY 1986 VOLUME XLVIII, NO. 7

J.F. ROSENCRANS, EDITOR; RAY BENCHENSTEIN, CIRCULATION; JIM DELANEY, POSTERS

Thursday May 19, 1986:

CIVIC DINNER/THEATER PARTY WITH HILARIOUS, LONG RUNNING BRITISH COMEDY ----- AN OUTRAGEOUS SUCCESS AND STILL PLAYING IN LONDON ----- ACCLAIMED BY CRITICS EVERYWHERE:===== "NO SEX PLEASE, WE'RE BRITISH"

This hilarious, bungling antics of a newlywed couple, living above a sedate London bank, having ordered some fine Swedish glassware, instead receive a mixed-up shipment of porno material about the same time their parents arrive for a visit. Their attempts, aided by a bungling young bank clerk, to dispose of it with its continuing reappearance, create some of the funniest comedy scenes in recent times.

In spite of the provocative title and references, it is a very clean family show, and should be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Get your reservations in to Keith Hood at once. Get your check to Keith before May 20 for you and your spouse and others.
